

PHOTOS: SMOC, United Way and Greater Framingham Community Church serve up holiday lunch

SMOC and the United Way of Tri-County teamed up with Greater Framingham Community Church to host a holiday luncheon on Tuesday for single adults in need.

Posted: Dec 16, 2014

Photos by Allan Jung/ for Daily News and Wicked Local People bow their heads as Rev. Dr. J. Anthony Lloyd says a prayer before lunch.

United Way employee Jen Maseda of Natick helps put out candy and set tables

SMOC Board of Directors member Joan Rastani of Framingham directs people to empty tables as they enter.

Town officials, SMOC and United Way employees and volunteers, right, serve people as they line up.

Allen Wood, 71, of Framingham makes his way to a table with his plate.

Festively dressed Patricia Wright of Framingham makes her way through the serving line.

Ronald Fuller tries the bread.