

The METROWEST DAILY NEWS

Thursday, December 12, 2013

metrowestdailynews.com

Volume 16, Number 47 - 32 pages - 4 sections $1

GRANT

New wheels for program

Voices Against Violence, the domestic abuse and rape crisis program operated by SMOC, was able to purchase a new 2013 Dodge Caravan, with a $20,000 grant from the Mary Kay Foundation. From left: Rhona George of Framingham, a senior Mary Kay consultant, Voices Against Violence Director Mary Gianakis; case workers Caitlin LeMay and Camila Barrera, and shelter manager Michelle Nelson. DAILY NEWS STAFF PHOTO/ART ILLMAN